On Sunday, March 19, 2016, please join us at 2:00 pm to see "Rise: An Offering" at the National Hispanic Cultural Center. This work is directed by HWC member Mónica Sánchez and another HWC member, Mónica Rodríguez, will play a role in the production.

You may contact NHCC's box office at 505-724-4771 to purchase tickets for this event - or purchase online at: <http://www.nhccnm.org/> Seating is limited so buy your tickets soon!

Ticket prices are: Adults - $18 Students, Seniors, Children - $15

When you purchase your ticket, please tell the box office staff that you are with the HWC group.

After the performance, join us in NHCC's Bank of America Atrium to meet the Hembras de Pluma performers and mingle with your vecinas!

Hembras de Pluma—"feathered women," or "women wielding the pen"—is a collective of women artists who have come together to present personal stories of childhood, growing older, loss, love, grief and joy, told as monologues and short plays, and written and performed to honor their histories, their ancestors, their families, and themselves.
